A tree's rings

are a map of its life. As they accumulate with each passing year, varying in thickness and colour and forming according to experience, the pattern of rings becomes individual to every tree. They are a unique imprint of a lifetime's journey.

Lasting solidity.

The executive tables feature solid oak legs with a 15° slope on the vertical axis. Fenix is the innovative new proposal for an intelligent and highly practical worktop. Available in black or white, they are extra spacious. Also available as a meeting table.

A system that creates connections.

Love towards details

Every handmade object is unique in its own. Our craftsmen devote time in order to achieve perfection, nothing less. An inebriating search for equilibrium that shapes what nature created. Unique pieces of furniture come alive thanks to a mixture of different yet complementary materials.
